

CALL FOR PRESENTERS

We choose all of us: Moving from theory to practice

May 12th-15th, 2019 | Sunriver, Oregon

The Oregon Coalition Against Domestic & Sexual Violence (OCADSV) is seeking conference workshop proposals from dynamic, knowledgeable presenters with a robust understanding of the dynamics of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking in regards to survivor-centered intervention, advocacy, and prevention.

Over 220 people attended our conference in 2018, including domestic and sexual violence advocates and other agency staff; local, state and federal government employees; and numerous community partners from the healthcare, military, law enforcement, corrections, K-12 and higher education, social services, and mental health fields.

The Oregon Coalition Against Domestic & Sexual Violence joyfully welcomes people of every race, ethnic background, spiritual belief, economic status, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, ability, immigration status, or other groups.

All proposed workshops must:

- Be designed for experienced practitioners (no beginner-level content); and
- Incorporate interactive and participatory workshop facilitation methods.

Additional consideration will be given to workshop proposals that:

- Substantively cover material within one or more priority topic areas (see page 2);
- Provide attendees with tangible knowledge/skills/tools/practices; and/or
- Feature multi-lingual and multi-cultural presenters for workshops conducted in languages other than English.

A. Priority topic areas

CLUSTER 1 – Prevention Through Liberation: The Prevention Through Liberation project supports community-driven culturally-specific and –responsive activities that address sexual violence at its deepest roots. Successful proposals in this cluster will help attendees incorporate anti-oppressive principles and practices into their primary prevention activities.

CLUSTER 2 – We Choose All of Us: Successful proposals in this cluster will educate and empower attendees to champion changes toward equity and inclusion within their organizations, through their work, and in their wider communities.

CLUSTER 3 – Support group facilitation: Successful proposals will detail successful strategies for planning, developing, and facilitating support groups for survivors of sexual assault, domestic violence, and/or stalking.

CLUSTER 4 – Trauma-informed supervision and leadership: Successful proposals in this cluster will focus on agency-level policies and supervisory practices that effectively focus on trauma resilience, stewardship, and organizational sustainability.
