

CALL FOR PRESENTERS

We choose all of us: Moving from theory to practice

May 12th-15th, 2019 | Sunriver, Oregon

The Oregon Coalition Against Domestic & Sexual Violence (OCADSV) is seeking conference workshop proposals from dynamic, knowledgeable presenters with a robust understanding of the dynamics of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking in regards to survivor-centered intervention, advocacy, and prevention.

Over 220 people attended our conference in 2018, including domestic and sexual violence advocates and other agency staff; local, state and federal government employees; and numerous community partners from the healthcare, military, law enforcement, corrections, K-12 and higher education, social services, and mental health fields.

The Oregon Coalition Against Domestic & Sexual Violence joyfully welcomes people of every race, ethnic background, spiritual belief, economic status, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, ability, immigration status, or other groups.

All proposed workshops must:

- Be designed for experienced practitioners (no beginner-level content); and
- Incorporate interactive and participatory workshop facilitation methods.

Additional consideration will be given to workshop proposals that:

- Substantively cover material within one or more priority topic areas (see page 2);
- Provide attendees with tangible knowledge/skills/tools/practices; and/or
- Feature multi-lingual and multi-cultural presenters for workshops conducted in languages other than English.

A. Priority topic areas

CLUSTER 1 – Prevention Through Liberation: The Prevention Through Liberation project supports community-driven culturally-specific and –responsive activities that address sexual violence at its deepest roots. Successful proposals in this cluster will help attendees incorporate anti-oppressive principles and practices into their primary prevention activities.

CLUSTER 2 – We Choose All of Us: Successful proposals in this cluster will educate and empower attendees to champion changes toward equity and inclusion within their organizations, through their work, and in their wider communities.

CLUSTER 3 – Support group facilitation: Successful proposals will detail successful strategies for planning, developing, and facilitating support groups for survivors of sexual assault, domestic violence, and/or stalking.

CLUSTER 4 – Trauma-informed supervision and leadership: Successful proposals in this cluster will focus on agency-level policies and supervisory practices that effectively focus on trauma resilience, stewardship, and organizational sustainability.

B. Compensation

For each 90-minute standard workshop that is accepted, OCADSV will provide:

- $120 per workshop;
- One (1) standard double-occupancy guestroom for one (1) night at Sunriver Resort per workshop; and
- Registration fee waivers for each presenter for the day of their presentation.

For each 180-minute deep-dive workshop that is accepted, OCADSV will provide:

- $240 per workshop;
- One (1) standard double-occupancy guestroom for two (2) nights at Sunriver Resort per workshop; and
- Registration fee waivers for each presenter for the entire conference.

C. Proposal instructions, timeline, and to-do list for presenters

- Friday, January 4th, 2019 at 5:00pm (Pacific time) Extended to January 11th!
All workshop proposals must be received by OCADSV for consideration.

Submit one per proposed workshop:

- A completed Workshop Proposal form
Please complete a separate form for each language in which you plan to conduct the workshop.

Additionally, each PRESENTER must submit:

- A completed Presenter Application form
- Signed Photo Release and Release of Information forms
These permit OCADSV to use presenters' bios and workshop descriptions on our website, promotional mailings, and printed conference attendee materials.

If you are submitting a workshop proposal with multiple people, please submit all materials together. We cannot consider illegible or incomplete proposals. No faxes please.

E-mail: jonathan@ocadsv.org (Subject line: "2019 Conference workshop proposal" and the title of your proposed workshop)

Snail mail: OCADSV Attn: Conference
