Why Support the Oregon Coalition Against Domestic & Sexual Violence?

The Oregon Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence (OCADSV) promotes equity and social change in order to end violence for all communities. We seek to transform society by engaging diverse voices, supporting the self-determination of survivors and providing leadership for advocacy efforts.

The Oregon Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence is a non-profit, feminist organization that was founded in 1978. Our member programs – including crisis centers, shelters and other organizations – serve survivors in their communities and comprise the core of the Coalition.

OCADSV's Annual Conference is a three-day conference that allows advocates, directors, and community partners throughout the state to learn, network and develop new tools to take back to their communities. This conference is the only statewide gathering focused on deepening and strengthening our movement to serve, empower and advocate for survivors of domestic and sexual violence.

OCADSV's Annual Conference is unique in that we pay the cost for two staff members from each of our member programs to attend free of charge, including hotel rooms, meal and travel costs. Additional staff members attend at reduced rates.

This is made possible by the Coalition's funders and business community partners who are committed to a world free of violence.

If you have any questions, please contact Keri Moran-Kuhn, OCADSV Associate Director at 503-230-1951 or email kerimk@ocadsv.org.

We look forward to partnering with you!
