About Clackamas Women's Services (CWS)

Clackamas Women's Services (CWS) was incorporated in 1985 as Clackamas County's first shelter for women and children escaping family violence and domestic abuse. CWS' service delivery framework is built on trauma-informed best practices that promote safety and self-determination. Our vision is to live in a society that no longer tolerates domestic and sexual violence, but rather thrives on mutual respect.

CWS offers comprehensive, responsive solutions for adults and children impacted by sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking, the sex industry, and elder abuse. Through our confidential emergency shelter, our rural outreach office and A Safe Place Family Justice Center, CWS coordinates services with other public and private agencies in order to best serve survivors seeking help. Participants in our programs receive no-cost services by highly trained staff.

Position Purpose:

Responsible for conducting primary prevention education, outreach, information and referral to children. Service delivery includes providing Communities for Safe Kids, a child sexual abuse prevention program utilizing facilitated workshops with puppets, in K-6th grade classrooms and connecting area schools with child sexual abuse prevention resources. Engages school communities in sexual and dating violence prevention.

Key Responsibilities:
