

Definitions and Dynamics of Domestic Violence – Jessica Klein, The Harbor

1hr 25min, filmed June 2022

Domestic Violence 101 and beyond

Definitions and Dynamics of Sexual Violence – Jen Brom, Jen Brom Consulting

53 min, filmed August 2022

Sexual Violence 101 and beyond

Stalking, Safety & Privacy in a Digital Age – Toby Shulruff, Safety Net Project

1hr 24min, filmed June 2022

Stalking 101 and beyond

Legislative History of the Movement – Jen Brom, Jen Brom Consulting

7 min, filmed May 2022

A very quick rundown of legislative landmarks in our field, covering the 1970s-2010s.

The Impact of Domestic Violence on Youth – Stacy Bancroft, LCSW

43 min, filmed July 2022

Part 1 of 2 on working with youth, covering dynamics and impact

Supporting Youth Impacted by Domestic Violence & Adult Survivors of Sexual Abuse - Stacy Bancroft, LCSW

47 min, filmed July 2022

Part 2 of working with youth, covering strategies for advocacy

Who Commits Sexual Assault? – Cecilia Wolfe (previously with Call to Safety)

1hr 16min, filmed May 2022

An exploration of statistics, dynamics and behaviors of those who perpetrate sexual violence, as well as some thoughts around next steps for research and accountability.

Dynamics of Intimate Partner Violence & Abuse Perpetration – Eric Mankowski, Ph.D., Portland State University

1hr 29min, filmed June 2022

An exploration of statistics, dynamics and behaviors of those who cause domestic violence,

Crisis Response – Jen Brom, Jen Brom Consulting

43min, filmed May 2022

Part 1 of 2 of advocacy skills. This covers how to screen for suicidality, de-escalation and trauma informed responses.

Advocacy & Support – Jen Brom, Jen Brom Consulting

31min, filmed May 2022

Part 2 of advocacy skills. This goes deeper into safety planning and case management, as well as tips from a longtime sexual violence advocate.

Impacts of Trauma, Vicarious Resilience & Self-Care – Trisha Fey Elizarde and Nicole Rodriguez, Peace at Home

1hr 53min, filmed May 2022

A caring, calming, nurturing road through the benefits, challenges and necessities of self and community care.

Working with Systems Across Oregon – Keri Moran-Kuhn, OCADSV

40min, filmed May 2022

A guide to some of the most common governmental systems advocates might navigate with survivors, including DHS, DOJ, and OHA - including explanations of acronyms!

Protective Orders – Bernadette Valdellon, Legal Aid Services of Oregon

55min, filmed May 2022

An in-depth look at all of Oregon's options for civil protective orders, and the advocate's role in assisting survivors.

Inclusive Practices for LGBTQIA+ Survivors – Jaxyn Brown, MSW, CSWA, LICSWA

1hr 1min, filmed August 2022

A culturally-specific look at best practices for serving survivors within these communities, as well as a primer on terminology.

Working with Latinx and Indigenous Latin American Survivors – claire barrera, Multnomah County Domestic and Sexual Violence Coordination Office

1hr 17min, filmed June 2022

A culturally-specific look at best practices for serving survivors within these communities, as well as a primer on terminology.

Supporting Tribal People Who Experience Personal Violence – Kimberly Lane, Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians

1hr 30min, filmed May 2022

A culturally-specific look at best practices for serving survivors within these communities, as well as a discussion of why co-advocacy between mainstream and Tribal programs is beneficial to both advocates and survivors.

Domestic and Sexual Violence and Disability – Jill Reese, NTcares; Barbara Wolfe, NAYA; and Lee Watts, Multnomah County Domestic and Sexual Violence Coordination Office

1hr 18min, filmed May 2022

A culturally-specific look at best practices for serving survivors within these communities, as well as a primer on terminology and tips on accessibility from an agency perspective.

Working with Black & African American Survivors - Dornice Hart and Sarina Simpson, S&D Consulting, LLC

1hr 44min, filmed June 2022

A culturally-specific look at best practices for serving survivors within these communities, intersectionality between identities, and a discussion of historical trauma.

Addressing the Intersections of IPV & Health – Stacy Whittington, Peace at Home; and Erin Richardson, Tides of Change

47 min, filmed May 2022

An introduction to advocacy within a healthcare setting, from colocated models to the importance of health-related knowledge and conversations within all advocacy roles.

Support Group Basics – Diana Camarillo (previously with Clackamas Women’s Services)

55 min, filmed August 2022

A primer on how to build accessible and meaningful support groups within your organization, facilitation tips, and best practices for culturally-specific groups.